Own Punchy the Robot

Our fabulous, extremely collectable Punchy the Robot t-shirt will be on sale for only $15 at the WebVisions bookstore next to the registration counters. Be the envy of family and friends as you show off your casual sophistication.

We'll also offer selected "classic WebVisions" designs (read: last year's models) as supplies last. They were great the first time around and even better as they've aged in our climate controlled, UV protected storage containers.

Regardless, you'll be well dressed.

Interview: "C.R.A.P. Happens"

Lorelle Van Fossen talks C.R.A.P. about WordPress with WebVisions Executive Director, Brad Smith. What's C.R.A.P.? Code Research Aggregation and Plug-ins – a nifty system for managing multiple contributors who may work in the same office or be dispersed around the globe.
